WAR DEPARTMENT
OFFICE OF THE UNDER SECRETARY
WASHINGTON, D. C.

AUG 30 1941

Mr. M. Robert Rogers,
Editor, Click Magazine,
400 North Broadway Street,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Dear Mr. Rogers:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter dated August 6, 1941 enclosing a photostatic copy of pages A3845-6 of the Congressional Record of July 29, 1941.

The letter addressed to Mr. C. S. Kelton, Secretary, Rohn & Haas Co., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, dated June 26, 1941 and signed by Brig. Gen. O. P. Echols, Chief of the Materiel Division, Office, Chief of the Air Corps, was routine in character and the Materiel Division, at the time the letter was transmitted to the company, had no knowledge of any article published in "Click" magazine. The letter signed by Gen. Echols was not designed to show any criticism or disproof of an article published in "Click" or any other magazine.

Sincerely yours,

ROBERT P. PATTERSON,
Under Secretary of War.
